Dear Ambassador Carlucci:

I enjoyed very much your recent presentation at the Council on Foreign Relations in New York, and was glad to have the opportunity, even if briefly, of meeting you then.

As mentioned to you and to one of your colleagues at that time, this letter is to request appointment with you, or with a designated senior official at CIA. Specifically, this is to inquire whether 9:45 A.M. on Wednesday, April 4, 1979 would be convenient.

Enclosed are materials regarding our Cincinnati Council, which prepares in-depth studies and educational services involving leaders of main constituencies in the neighboring three-state region of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, working on a four-year program profile at the given time, and which also a number of times a year serves in a secretariat role for coordinating utilization of overseas authorities in whose utilization we and other major studies centers in the United States share. An indication of the identity and authoritativeness of such individuals can be gained from the enclosed materials.

We have certain specific programmatic needs at this time, and in two cases of which identification of the authorities for our programming purposes is needed by the end of this coming April, about which it would be most helpful to have opportunity for discussing both as to procedures for such matters in the future, and in regard to these specific in-depth programming for themselves.

Further, if you or your colleagues would find it of utility for there to be any discussion when we might meet in regard to appropriate roles which can be played in national dialogues in our own country on international factors and endeavors, I should also be pleased to take these up in such appointment now or in the future.
